FOR THE SOUTH KENTUCKIAN. LINES ON THE DEATH OF DAVID BUTLER.

On the enchanting Texas border,
Where the wild-flowers bloom and wave,
Near where ruthless war left slaughter,
May he see a young man's grave.

O! how cruel is the sickle
That cuts down young manhood's prime,
Flies to work and health's sickle,
And no man can count his time.

Wealth affluence make us wander,
Others to lands are sure to claim,
Noblest hearts have failed to ponder
Where there's safety and where's harm.

Shall we censure? O! forbid it.
Many a man has ventured, won,
Then woe in words befitting,
"Let God's will be done."

Let "Old Death" still have his victory;
Let the grave still have its own;
Only let us be ready,
When the summons calls us home.

Then in words full-fraught with meaning,
Words which accents ring and thrill,
May we, on the Savior leaning,
Try to do his sovereign will.

Then may friends and loved ones cheer us,
As we journey on our way,
Leading up to God and Heaven,
"To the bright and perfect day."

Parents, friends, mourn not the parting;
Other loved ones, gone before,
Stand to welcome his arrival
On the fair, celestial shore.

BY ONE WHO LOVED HIM.
MEMPHIS, KY., Oct. 20, 1884.

The Plain Figures.

[New York World.]
The following table presents, we believe, a fair statement of the political situation at the present moment:

For Cleveland certain: Alabama, 10; Arkansas, 7; Delaware, 3; Florida, 4; Georgia, 12; Kentucky, 13; Louisiana, 8; Maryland, 8; Mississippi, 9; Missouri, 16; North Carolina, 11; South Carolina, 9; Tennessee, 12; Texas, 13; Virginia, 12; West Virginia, 6. Total 153.

For Blaine certain: Maine, 6; Massachusetts, 11; Minnesota, 7; Nebraska, 5; New Hampshire, 4; Pennsylvania, 30; Rhode Island, 4; Vermont, 1. Total, 74.

Doubtful, but with a Democratic record and strongest probabilities for Cleveland: Connecticut, 6; Indiana, 15; New Jersey, 9; New York, 36. Total, 66.

Doubtful, with chances about even: California, 8; Illinois, 22; Iowa, 13; Kansas, 9; Michigan, 13; Nevada, 3; Oregon, 3; Wisconsin, 11. Total, 82.

Doubtful, with chances probably favoring Blaine: Colorado, 3; Ohio, 23. Total, 26.

Necessary to elect—201 electoral votes.

Although set down as "leakable," there is absolutely no slight if any doubt that the Democrats will carry Connecticut, Indiana, New Jersey and New York, which, with the 153 certain Democratic electoral votes of the Southern States, will give Cleveland 219 votes, or 18 more than a majority of the Electoral College. But of the States classified as doubtful, with about even chances, Cleveland has a fair prospect in Illinois, Nevada and Wisconsin. These would add 36 to his vote, making the total 255 and leaving 146 votes for Blaine.

But is it at all certain that Blaine will carry Ohio in November? In the general election he will be unable to concentrate money and personal exertion on that State, as he did in last Tuesday's contest. It will not be so easy to make a combination with St. John Prohibitionists as it was to bring about a fusion with the State Prohibitionists. Many Republicans supported the Republican State officers who will refuse to vote for Mr. Blaine because of his personal corruptions.

A chance of 5,000 votes would take Ohio out of the Republican column in November.

California is more likely to remain Democratic than to turn back to Republicanism, and Oregon will follow in her wake. So it seems probable that Blaine may be left with about a dozen States after all.

This would be a desirable result. It would avert all danger of an attempt to repeat the crime of 1876, and the honor and character of the nation would be advanced by such a signal rebuke of official corruption.

The Republican party must go if the Republic is to stay.

The Premium Engraving issued by "Peterson's Magazine," for 1885, like everything else from that quarter, is of rare excellence and beauty. It is not one of the cheap colored lithographs with which the country is flooded, but a first-class line and stipple engraving, executed in the highest style of art. The artists are Illman Brothers, and they have engraved it—size, 2 1/2 inches by 2 1/2—expressly for "Peterson's Magazine," in their most brilliant manner. The picture is called "The Lion In Love," and is a capital affair: sure to raise a smile. In artistic merit, it is, we think, one of the finest "Petersons" has ever issued. Another of the premiums is the "Pearl of Price" an illustrated volume of the American poets. Another is an extra copy of the magazine, etc., etc. You can get any of them, gratis, by raising a club for "Peterson for 1885." This is a rare chance. Specimens of the magazine sent, gratis, with full particulars, to those wishing to get up clubs, if written for. Address CHARLES J. PETERSON, 305 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia Pa.

BLAINE'S COURTSHIP.

How He Loved and Courtied Miss Marshall Even After the Secret Marriage at Pittsburgh.

[Frankfort Special in Louisville Post.]
FRANKFORT, Ky., Oct. 11.—Col. John C. Shoemaker, editor and proprietor of the Indianapolis Sentinel, will be here next week to take the depositions of several persons in this section, which will be of important value to the defendant in the damage suit brought by the Republican candidate for the presidency against the Sentinel Company. It reports to be true, the testimony of at least one gentleman will be especially damaging to the Plumed Knight who aspires to the highest office in the gift of the American people. This gentleman was an old friend, chum and confidant of Blaine while he was teaching school near Dremont Springs, in Henry county. It is asserted that he will testify that from the month of March, 1881, at which time Blaine alleged that he married his present wife for the second time, and the 8th of June of the same year, on which day their first child was born, that Blaine was at Dremont Springs, and was devoted and, in fact, deeply in love with a very excellent and charming young lady of that neighborhood. She was not aware that he was married, neither did he tell her that he was, nor were any of the residents of that village informed of his marriage while he was courting this lady, who is now dead. He will say further that, while Blaine's wife was in a delicate condition at Pittsburgh, at least for several weeks before the birth of the child, that she, nor any of her immediate family knew of her husband's whereabouts, although they made strong efforts to ascertain where he was, and as soon they heard he was at Dremont Springs the Stanwoods sent him word that unless he came to Pittsburgh and joined his wife that they intended to force him to do so. After Blaine left Dremont Springs he did not forget the lady he was in love with there, but, on the contrary he wrote her numerous letters, which indicated his love for her. These letters are in existence to this day, and are now in possession of a Louisville lady, who is a near relative of the deceased lady. Colonel Shoemaker went quietly to Louisville a few days ago and sought this lady. She did not deny having possession of the letters, but positively declined to produce them if it was Colonel Shoemaker's intention of offering them as an evidence in the damage suit. If this gentleman testifies to the above and this lady surrenders these letters it would be the means of settling the next presidency, and that very speedily.

About the Presidents.

President Arthur was 51 years old recently. He was born October 5, 1829. Ex-President Hayes was born October 4, 1822. The only other President born in October was John Adams, who was born on the 8th and was 62 years old when he was inaugurated. Garfield, Pierce and Polk were born in November; Andrew Johnson and Martin Van Buren in December; Millard Fillmore in January; Abraham Lincoln, William H. Harrison and George Washington in February; Jackson, Tyler and Madison in March; Grant, Buchanan, Monroe and Jefferson in April; John Quincy Adams in July; Zachary Taylor in September. As to deaths Garfield died in September; Johnson Van Buren, Taylor, Monroe, Jefferson and John Adams in July; Lincoln and Harrison in April; Buchanan, Polk, Jackson and Madison in June; Pierce in October; Fillmore in March; Tyler in January; John Quincy Adams in February and George Washington in December. Grant was our youngest President, having been 47 years old at the time he was inaugurated. Franklin Pierce came next, at the age of 49. Then came Garfield, Fillmore and Polk, each 50. Then Tyler and Arthur, both 51 years old, and both Vice-Presidents succeeding to the Presidency by the death of Presidents. Abraham Lincoln was 52 when inaugurated. James Madison 54, Hayes and Van Buren 55, Andrew Johnson 57, Jefferson and John Quincy Adams 58; George Washington 59, Andrew Jackson 62, Zachary Taylor, 73, John Adams 65, James Buchanan 66 and William H. Harrison 68. Of these men, Garfield, Grant, Pierce, Taylor, Polk, Harrison, Jackson and Washington bore the title of General and had military reputations. All of them had been in the Government employ in some capacity before their nomination, and some, such as Van Buren, Jefferson, Monroe and the two Adamses had years of training in the cabinets preceding them. John Quincy Adams received a salary from the United States Government for 59 years, and the sum total must have amounted to $500,000. At the close of his presidential term he had 52 years of office-holding, and his salary had aggregated $425,000; still he had 17 years of Congress after this, and died at the Capitol at a congressional session. At the age of 14 he went to Russia as the private secretary of the American Legation, and he was in after years Minister to England, Germany, Portugal, Russia and the Netherlands.

Geo. Ditto's Letter to Cleveland.

[State Journal.]

DEAR SIR: Having had the honor of being the first one to nominate you as the candidate of the Democracy of the country for President, I feel it my duty to give you a few words of advice.

I suppose that by this time you are aware of the fact that you are a candidate for the President on the Democratic ticket. You was nominated at Chicago several months ago. I saw an account of that in a paper myself. Well, now try and impress this on your mind that you are a candidate. If you can only make yourself firmly believe this, you can enter the campaign with greater zeal.

You are a young man, Grove, and have never had the experience of being a candidate in a Presidential campaign, and this is why I will speak to you plainly. No one shall ever know I gave you the advice herein enclosed. Burn this letter. But hold on; don't burn it until you have read it. I will remind you at the bottom, again, to burn it.

Grove, there is one trait of your character that will go against you in the campaign—you're too honest. Your record as a public official is too pure—too white. Couldn't you do something to dirty it up some? Look at Blaine. His record is a dirty black, and see how he ran in Ohio a week or so ago—from town to town—but he didn't go to Hope Furnace; the weather there was too hot for him—he has Bright's disease; and Mr. Bright, knowing the character of the man, won't make any attempt to get the disease back again.

Remember, Grove, that "everything is fair in war"—especially fair woman—a power in politics. Behold Mrs. Logan, the assistant Vice-President. What kind of grammar would John now be speaking were he not aided by her? Modesty forbids me saying anything about Mrs. Belva Woodwood. I'm an elector for the State at small in this district on her ticket; and really I am so bashful that I even blush at the idea of being on her ticket. But if I were in your place I'd make a tour through the country on foot. Blaine he rode; but on foot is better. I'd have a satchel filled with tobacco and whisky in one hand, for men, and one of candy and such in the other for the children and women.

Don't forget to kiss the babies. Nothing pleases a woman more than for a nice looking gentleman to kiss her baby, unless it be kissing her. While you are performing the kissing act gaze on the mother.

Yes, by all means, kiss all the children. It doesn't make any difference how dirty their faces may be—the dirtier the face the surer the vote of the husband; for that may be the only time the dirty-faced young ones were ever kissed by a stranger, and hence the mother will think so much the more of you, and she'll make her man vote for you or get a divorce.

Do you ever smoke the pipe, Grove? I am going to take a smoke now. You'd better say you smoke the pipe. That would tickle the pipe-smokers of the country, and there are millions of 'em. Wait, now, till I light up, and I'll tell you some more.

Yes, Grove, don't forget to kiss the babies. When I ran for Mayor I purchased that plan of canvassing and I was actually elected by 7 majority. And I didn't kiss more than two hundred babies—there wasn't any more in town.

Now, Grove, if you are good at figures you can easily calculate how much your majority would be if you'd kiss all the babies in the United States. The sum can be done by the good old Rule of Three—if 200 babies bring 7 majority, how much majority will all the babies in the country bring?

When you write, put in a stamp for reply, as I desire our correspondence strictly confidential.

Burn this letter.

OLD KENTUCK.

POLITICAL POINTS.

A compromise ticket has been agreed upon by the Tammany and county Democracy in New York and all fears of disaffection may be dismissed. John Kelly and his followers will support Cleveland almost to a man.

Horace B. Claflin is the greatest man they are playing Ohio election. A grocery box answers for the polls, and a big boy with a club stands near to act as Marshal. Then a boy comes up to vote. "How do you vote?" asks the Marshal. "Democrat," says the boy voter. "Whack!" goes the club of the marshal, and the voter rolls on the ground till he is picked up by two other marshals and carried to a fence corner, which serves as a jail. After the election is over a board is stuck up, with "Great Republican Victory—10,000 Majority" chalked on it.—This and That.

Dr. Samuel Hodge's Sarsaparilla and potash is a sure cure for rheumatism, scrofula, scald head or tetter, chronic sores of all kind or any disease arising from impurity of the blood. You can get a trial bottle at J. R. Armistead's, G. E. Gaither's or Gish & Garners.

Campaign Figures.

The Presidential campaign may be easily summarized. The small majority of the Republicans in Ohio is in reality a Democratic triumph, in so far as it shows the growth of the sentiment against the Republican party. The plurality is less than twelve thousand; in October, 1880, it was almost twenty thousand. As far as all reasonable certainly goes, the following States are to be counted on as voting for the candidates named:

FOR CLEVELAND.	FOR BLAINE.
Alabama.....	Colorado.....
Arkansas.....	Connecticut.....
California.....	Delaware.....
Florida.....	Illinois.....
Georgia.....	Indiana.....
Idaho.....	Iowa.....
Illinois.....	Kansas.....
Indiana.....	Kentucky.....
Iowa.....	Louisiana.....
Kansas.....	Maine.....
Kentucky.....	Massachusetts.....
Louisiana.....	Michigan.....
Maine.....	Minnesota.....
Massachusetts.....	Mississippi.....
Michigan.....	Missouri.....
Minnesota.....	Montana.....
Mississippi.....	Nebraska.....
Missouri.....	Nevada.....
Montana.....	New Hampshire.....
Nebraska.....	New Jersey.....
Nevada.....	New Mexico.....
New Hampshire.....	New York.....
New Jersey.....	North Carolina.....
New Mexico.....	Ohio.....
New York.....	Oregon.....
North Carolina.....	Rhode Island.....
Ohio.....	South Carolina.....
Oregon.....	Tennessee.....
Rhode Island.....	Vermont.....
South Carolina.....	Virginia.....
Tennessee.....	West Virginia.....
Vermont.....
Virginia.....
West Virginia.....
Total.....	Total.....

Indiana is not admitted to be Democratic this year, but to all intents and purposes it is as certain as Massachusetts. About New Jersey there can practically be no doubt. Cleveland was the man the State of New Jersey wanted nominated, and for Cleveland will be cast the electoral vote of the State. The following States, then, are the only ones that can be truly said to be doubtful:

California.....	New York.....
Connecticut.....	Wisconsin.....
Idaho.....
Illinois.....
Michigan.....
Minnesota.....
Mississippi.....
Missouri.....
Montana.....
Nebraska.....
Nevada.....
New Hampshire.....
New Jersey.....
New Mexico.....
New York.....
North Carolina.....
Ohio.....
Oregon.....
Rhode Island.....
South Carolina.....
Tennessee.....
Vermont.....
Virginia.....
West Virginia.....
Total.....	Total.....

From these tabulars will be seen that Cleveland goes into the contest with a certain of 177 votes, and needing only twenty-four votes to make up the requisite 201. New York, with her thirty-six votes, will give him twelve more than is necessary for a choice. If he should lose all the others and carry New York, his election is sure. Blaine has only 143 votes that he can count on, and should he carry New York, he would still lack twenty-two votes of enough to elect. He would even then have to carry two or three of the other doubtful States. The chances of Cleveland carrying New York, and then, too, by a handsome majority, amounts almost to a certainty. Such popular enthusiasm as he aroused in both New York and Brooklyn has never been witnessed before. The Tammany organization promises to give him their full strength. The Independent Republicans claim that they will give him 40,000 votes, and Blaine has nothing to hope for except a miraculous vote for Butler. Carrying New York and any one of the other doubtful States, Cleveland will be elected President without the aid of Indiana. The chances now seem greatly in favor of the Democratic nominee. If the Democrats do not begin to blunder and mismanage, success is reasonable certain.—Louisville Post.

A Case Without Hope.

Jno. R. Booker, of Macon, Ga., writes: "In 1878 I was attacked by the most ruinous sort of cancerous sores, that are great holes into my flesh and spread rapidly over my body. I received the very best medical attention; was dosed with mercury and potash until I was so crippled with mercurial rheumatism that I could scarcely hobble about; my throat and mouth were badly ulcerated; my hair began to fall out. I was wrecked by my general health, that I became a physical ruin and my life was a burden. For a long time I was bed-ridden and my sufferings were so intense that I prayed for death as a relief. I exhausted the whole catalogue of patent medicines, in each case following the directions religiously. Each in turn seemed to aggravate the malady, and none of them benefited me in any way. When life was apparently hopeless I commenced taking S. S. S. To this Specific I owe my life. In ten days I commenced improving, and in a short time was perfectly well. My hair has grown out thick; my health and strength have returned; the ulcers in my throat and mouth are entirely cured; my appetite has returned, and for the first time in years I enjoy my food. Every sore has disappeared from my body. I weigh as much as I ever did in my life, and am perfectly healthy in every way. The very germs of the cancerous affliction are destroyed. Not only is the terrible malady that was preying on my life, and which every one pronounced incurable, entirely cured, but I am also relieved of the bad effects of the mercury and potash mixtures that I was fed on for years."

Beware of Potash and Mercury mixtures, gotten up to imitate our specific, they are dangerous. Treatise on Blood and Skin diseases mailed free.

dry goods merchant in the city of New York. Though a Republican of long standing, he endorses the declaration of Mr. Beecher that Blaine is a "continental liar," and declares that he will not support him. He says that out of 918 employees of his house, 600 when questioned on the subject had signified their intention to vote for Cleveland and Hendricks.—Courier-Journal.

"It Will Cure Asthma."

"I had suffered with asthma for over forty years, and had a terrible attack in December and January, 1882. One day I took four doses of Parker's Tonic. The effect astonished me. I slept perfectly that night, and am now wholly well. Parker's Tonic will cure chronic asthma." E. C. Williams, Chapman, Pa. Oct 21

This is the last week of the Southern Exposition, of Louisville. It will close Saturday.

Only ten days till the election. Nothing short of a miracle can accomplish the election of Blaine and Logan.

Baltimore gamblers are betting $1,000 to $800 that Cleveland will carry New York and even money that he will be elected. Money talks.

Tammany has shown its hand and there is no chance for Blaine in New York. The last hope of the Republicans is to "soap" Indiana.

Young ladies should bear in mind that leap year will end in a couple of months. Pick out your man and make hay while the early bird rises.

State Senator J. R. Swafford was shot and killed in a street fight with Monroe Hudson, jailer at Sparta, Tenn., last week.

Hon. Henry Watterson has taken the stump in Illinois and Wisconsin, and will speak in the principal cities of those states during this and next week.

The Blaine libel suit against the Indianapolis Sentinel has been set for trial Dec. 23. It is safe to say that the suit will be dismissed after Blaine's defeat next month.

The Republicans have carried Ohio by eleven thousand majority, but they will find that their little eleven will not leave the whole lump by upwards of a good deal.

Every paper nearly has from one to half a dozen weddings recorded. The matrimonial boom bids fair to eclipse the boom for Cleveland, Hendricks and Reform.

A rain storm greeted the hippodrome at Indianapolis Tuesday. It is a wonder that the Republicans do not charge the Democrats with getting it up.

Gen. "Sarah Gordon" Williams, Democratic candidate for Governor in 1887, is making speeches in the State. He spoke in Louisville Wednesday.

Gov. Cleveland was assaulted on the street in Albany Monday by Sam Boone, a rough who had vainly solicited a pardon for his brother-in-law, who was sentenced to the penitentiary for malicious shooting. Boone made several ineffectual attempts to strike the Governor with his fist but the blows were successfully warded off until the belligerent crank was taken in custody, and the Governor resumed his walk as if nothing had happened.

The Official Count.

The Democratic District committee met at Owensboro, the 18th inst., to count the votes cast in the Congressional primary. The following is the official report:

Laffoon's majority, 188. Randolph's plurality, 55. Total vote for Congressman, 11,596.

The following resolutions were then offered and adopted:

WHEREAS, At a primary election held in the Second Congressional district of Kentucky, on October 13th, 1884, the Hon. Polk Laffoon received a majority of the votes cast for candidate for Congress, and B. E. Randolph a plurality of the votes cast for member of State Board of Equalization.

Resolved, That we, the committee of the Second Congressional district of Kentucky, declare the Hon. Polk Laffoon the nominee of the Democratic party for Congress, and the Hon. B. E. Randolph the nominee for membership on the State Board of Equalization, to be voted for at the coming November election.

Geo. F. HAYNES, Chairman.
L. C. FLOUNOV, Secretary.

The Grand Lodge of Kentucky, Free and Accepted Masons, met in Louisville this week in their 69th annual session. The following officers of the Royal Arch Chapter were elected for the ensuing year:

Grand High Priest—Chas. E. Dunn, of Louisville. Deputy Grand High Priest—B. G. Witt, of Henderson.

Grand King—Hiram Bassett, of Millersburg.
Grand Scribe—Joseph I. Landes, of Hopkinsville.

Grand Treasurer—John H. Leathers, of Louisville.

Grand Secretary—Joseph H. Brannan, of Louisville.

The Louisville Commercial calls attention to the fact that in the printed Republican electoral ticket for Kentucky, the name of the elector for the Second district was printed wrong, and says his name should have been J. I. Landis, instead of J. J. Landis. For the information of the Commercial, we will state that the name is still wrong. The gentleman is a resident of this city and his name is J. I. Landis, (pronounced Lands) and if an error of one letter is liable to cut any figure, the mistake had better be corrected again.

We are sorry to see our esteemed contemporary the Henderson Journal engaged in kicking vigorously against Mr. Laffoon's nomination. It is but ten days till the election and it is high time all differences were being adjusted and steps being taken to rally every voter to the support of the nominee. Of course there is no doubt of Mr. Laffoon's election, but he should receive every Democratic vote in the district and show his competitor what the Democracy of this District can do when it "preads itself."

The Owensboro Messenger very wisely calls attention to the fact that Messrs. Ira Julian, Cromwell Adair and Ben S. Robbins, Democratic electors in the State, are members of the Legislature and believed by many to be ineligible in consequence. The question is one of grave importance and the State Central Committee should at once take the matter in hand and if there is a shadow of a doubt ask for their resignations either as electors or legislators.

It costs $10 for a female to wear a Mother Hubbard dress on the streets of Chicago. The police are instructed to arrest every woman caught wearing one on the streets. This is a kind of prohibition that the liberty-loving ladies of the Sucker State do not relish. Of course they don't want to wear them but to say they shall not wear them, is what hurts their sensibilities.

The Great Tammany ratification meeting in New York Tuesday evening was one of the biggest political demonstrations ever witnessed in this country. 30,000 men paraded in the torch-light procession, and the crowd was estimated at 100,000. Speeches were made at seven stands simultaneously, by some of the ablest orators of the Democratic party.

Gross Republican frauds have been found in West Virginia. In their desperate efforts to carry the State the Republicans imported negro repeaters by the wholesale. In Fayette Co. alone 900 fraudulent votes were cast and the matter is being investigated. In the face of these facts the Democratic majority in the State was nearly 6,000. West Virginia will do it to tie.

Daniel Lockwood, the man who nominated Cleveland, for Mayor, Governor and President, has been nominated for Congress by the Democrats of the 32nd New York District. The District is Democratic.

Jas. Wormley, the colored proprietor of Wormley's Hotel, Washington, one of the finest hotels in the capital city, died last week. He leaves an estate worth $100,000. His son will continue the business as heretofore.

ARTHUR TO BE MARRIED.

He Will Wed Miss Frelinghuysen in January.

New York, Oct. 21.—The marriage of the President with Miss Frelinghuysen has been arranged and will take place at Washington during January.

Miss Tillie is a child of Secretary Frelinghuysen and is about thirty-nine years old. She is a tall and slender blonde with clear cut features.

The Philadelphia Times (Independent), says: "We believe that Blaine is beaten. The popular tide as developed by the important October elections is an ailing index of an adverse current against Blaine, and an adverse Blaine tide in the middle of October means a Blaine Waterloo in November. The Ohio Blaine victory is the victory of death. It makes plain the truth that on the largest vote ever polled; with the most lavish expenditure ever known in any State; with Federal officials called from their public duties to work for the party in nearly every precinct; with Blaine leading the battle in exhaustive personal effort for a fortnight, and with the Prohibition vote going nearly solid for the Blaine ticket, the thoroughly Republican State of Ohio falls fully one-half below the voluntary majority of October, 1880, and two-thirds below the Garfield majority. It is an ailing index that Ohio with her overwhelming Republican majority for an acceptable Presidential candidate must be fought over again in November to assure her electoral vote for Blaine. It assures Indiana to Cleveland without a desperate struggle; and it is notice that Illinois, Michigan and Wisconsin must be contested as at least remotely doubtful States. It is notice the leaders of the Plumed Knight that his battle henceforth is fearful gale and tide; that just when he and his resources are exhausted the Cleveland leaders take the field with fresh resources and growing popular sentiment in their favor. We believe, therefore, that Blaine is beaten."

In New York Tuesday evening Congressman Miles Ross, of New Jersey, could find no takers for the following bets: $5,000 Cleveland carries Connecticut, $5,000 Cleveland carries New Jersey, $5,000 Cleveland carries New York, $5,000 Cleveland carries Indiana, $5,000 Cleveland will be elected.

Republicans had better be careful how they register votes not to shelve until they register "magnetic man" is elected. Judge A. B. Norton, the Republican candidate for Governor of Texas, now wears a flowing white beard that has not been cut since Henry Clay was defeated for the Presidency forty years ago.

"McSweeney's jailer" is the latest sobriquet applied to Blaine. It has its origin in the fact that Blaine, while Secretary of State, permitted Daniel McSweeney, an Irish-American citizen, to languish in an English prison for 18 months, having been arrested and imprisoned as a "suspect."

Col. Bennett H. Young and Judge Thos. H. Hargis had a sparring match in the Louisville Court a few days ago, but no harm was done. They disagreed about a case in which they were interested and Young gave the lie to one of Hargis' statements.

Montgomery B. Lytle, while having a cistern blasted out in Lincoln county, was struck by a rock and killed. He was 150 yards off under a tree, but the stone fell through the limbs crushing his thigh, as he had his foot on a log. He was 70 years old.

Hopkins county has come to the front this year. She will not only furnish the next Congressman from this district, but has just taken the premium at the Southern Exposition for the best display of agricultural, timber and mineral products.

Prof. Mach, a scientist of Prague, is reported to have carried the art of instantaneous photography to the point of securing photographs of a bullet in its flight. Prof. Mach would be a very useful man at a Cincinnati election.—This and That.

Mayor Carter Harrison has served notice on the United States Marshal at Chicago that that city will not tolerate any Powell Clayton negro-depaulo tactics on election day, and a vigilance committee has been appointed to prevent it.

Let every Democrat consider it his special duty to go to the polls Nov. 4 and vote his principles. We want Christian county to poll 2,500 Democratic votes this year and thereby increase her delegate vote in future conventions.

The Blaine hippodrome exhibited at Evansville Wednesday to a large crowd. Several speeches were made including one by Blaine himself. The Republican candidate has descended to downright begging of votes.

Blaine was in Indianapolis Tuesday but in the excitement incident to the campaign he forgot to drop into the Sentinel office and answer those last questions propounded to him by the inquisitive defendant in his libel suit.

Maud S. will trot at Lexington this fall and try to lower her record.

TAKE YOUR CHOICE, GENTLEMEN!

Of a Stem-winding Waterbury Watch and Chain, a Peep o'Day Alarm Clock, or a load of Best Lump Coal. This you can do by buying from us for cash, $12 worth of goods in either our Men's Department, Boys' Department or Furnishing Department, and the prices we name we guarantee to be as low as same class of goods can be bought for anywhere in the Southwest on day of sale.

EXPLANATORY:

By the failures of Carhart, Whitford & Co., and Randall Bros. & Co., New York City, about $3,000,000 worth of Men's and Boys' Clothing was thrown on the market. Most retail clothing had carried over so much clothing from the winter of 1883, that few were in a position to take advantage of these great breaks. This consequently forced these goods to be sold for almost a song. Our house being the only one in Louisville that had completely sold out its last winter's stock, was the only one in this city that could profit by these failures, and with money in hand, our New York buyer bought recklessly in quantity. The prices at which clothing was offered him were so low that he bought more than we could conveniently handle, especially as the weather during September was so very warm, and heavy-weight goods did not move rapidly. Now we have got these goods and they must be sold. To move them quick we offer the above inducements. Buying these goods as low as we did, we can well afford to give these presents and still undersell our competitors. But remember, these presents only go with

A DISRESPECTFUL CAR-DRIVER.

Gilhooley came very near being assaulted yesterday by a brutal street-car driver. The Galveston Street-Car Company, probably to save the wear and tear of the rails, has stuck up a notice: "Drivers must not stop on curves." Yesterday Gilhooley halted an East Broadway car. The driver put on the brakes and stopped the car. Gilhooley went up to him and said: "I don't care to ride just now, but I want to ask you a question." "What do you want?" asked the driver with very improper impudence. "I see you are forbidden to stop on curves. Now, I want to know how it is about benders. You are not allowed to stop on curves, but does the company permit you to go on a bender?" The rage of the driver exceeded that of a defeated candidate, and he used some very unparliamentary language. Why is it the street-car company does not employ polished gentlemen as drivers?—Galveston News.

DIED.

STARLING—At her residence in this city, Tuesday evening Oct. 21, after a short illness, Mrs. Marianne Starling. She was a most estimable woman and her sudden death was a severe shock to her friends. She leaves two grown sons, Mr. J. M. Starling, of this city, and Mr. E. D. Starling, of Louisville. The burial took place at the city cemetery Wednesday afternoon and a large concourse of sympathizing friends followed the remains to the grave.

ED. SOUTH KENTUCKIAN:—The citizens along Nashville street desire to call the attention of the City Council to its condition. It is well known that sheets of water, from pavement to pavement, frequently sweep it from Railroad to Virginia street, damaging property and ruining the sidewalks. There is more travel and heavy hauling done over this street than any other, and it is useless and very expensive to attempt to keep the pavements in good condition during the winter season when they are so frequently overrun with water. There are large quantities of broken rock at the quarries, and we all claim that we pay our taxes.

THE TOWN OF WHITEFIELD.

So great is the faith of the people of South Christian in the ultimate completion of the L. A. & T. Railroad that quite a town has been laid off at what is destined to be the most important station on the new road in Christian county. At the point on the Palmyra road where the farms of W. W. Radford and Dr. E. A. Wilson corner on opposite sides is the point where the embryo town has been located. The town cuts off less than an acre on Dr. Wilson's side and crosses the road and cuts off five acres on Mr. Radford's corner. The depot has been located on this spot and the town has been named Whitefield, being so called in honor of Mr. Radford, that being his given name. The grading has been completed several miles past this station and a switch 700 feet long has been graded. Mr. Radford has divided his five-acre cut-off into streets and lots and has already sold three lots. One will be occupied by a business house, another by a blacksmith's shop. Dr. Wilson has also sold three lots across the Palmyra road, one of which will be occupied by Mr. Buck Trahern, of Rose Hill, Tenn., who will erect a tobacco house. Dr. Wilson is now building a business house fronting on the public road which has already been rented. He is also building a cottage for rent. Other buildings will be built before the end of the year and it is expected that the town will be on a boom by the time the cars begin to run to it. It will be 20 miles from Clarksville and 12 miles from this city and there is no disguising the fact that it will be an important shipping point. It is in one of the finest sections of the county and its location will make it a trading center. Some of the business men of Garrettsburg will move to the new town as soon as the railroad is built. The work is going ahead and hands are now grading at Little River.

Our vote this year will establish our delegate representation for the next three years. Then let every Democrat go to the polls and vote. Christian ought to give Cleveland and Hendricks and Lafoon and Randolph 2,500 votes.

HERE AND THERE.

Howe's time is the city standard.

October is nearly gone and still we have had no frost.

For SALE—A good two-wheel road cart at a bargain. Call on C. W. Decker.

The next attraction at the Opera House will be Happy Cal Wagner's minstrels, Nov. 8.

A large crowd of excursionists left for the Louisville Exposition yesterday morning.

Dr. J. M. Dennis has been elected physician to the poor-house and jail for the ensuing two years.

For beds, bedding, bureaus, wardrobes, tables, carpets &c., at low prices call on Jno. W. Payne.

A few of our premiums have not been called for. The owners will please call and get them as soon as possible.

Mr. G. H. Towery, Greenback elector for the second district, will speak in this city Saturday, Oct. 25, at 7:30 o'clock, p. m.

A barn belonging to Mrs. Lyford, colored, was burned near Poe Dec one night last week. She lost her entire crop of tobacco worth about $500.

The County Court of Claims completed its business Tuesday and adjourned. Appropriations to the amount of about $5,000 were made.

Hon. J. Z. Moore, Republican candidate for Congress in this District, will speak at the court house, this city, Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Mr. R. H. Coffey had a sale of personal effects Wednesday, at his home in the southern part of the county with a view of moving to Virginia to live.

Now is the time to gather your potatoes. They should be picked carefully from the trees and not shaken down or knocked off with a pole, as they will not keep well when bruised.

Those who go on the excursion train to Evansville to-morrow can return to-morrow night, or on Sunday or Monday without extra charge. At least a hundred ought to go from here.

The protracted meeting at South Union church, at Church Hill, closed Wednesday. There were three accessions to the church; they were baptized Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock.

A meeting of nine days' continuance, at Locust Grove Baptist church, Trigg county, was closed Monday. There were five accessions to the church. The pastor, Rev. A. W. Meacham, was assisted by Rev. C. H. Gregston.

Messrs. Hancock, Fraser & Ragsdale have rented the Hopkinsville warehouse lately occupied by Messrs. Nelson & Jessup and will use it for storing tobacco the present season in connection with the People's Warehouse. This will give them ample capacity for handling at least 4000 hogsheads.

Mr. C. H. Bush, Democratic elector for Christian county will speak at the following times and places: Crofton, Saturday, Oct. 25th. Pembroke, Friday, Oct. 31st. Lafayette, Saturday, Nov. 1st. Hopkinsville, Monday, Nov. 3rd. Speaking to begin at 1:30 o'clock, p. m.

We will sell for cash this month the remainder of our stock consisting of our own make and latest styles of Harouches, Rockaways and Buggies at COST, also a few No. 1 good homo made second hand buggies at less than COST. Now is your opportunity to get a good bargain. So call early as we have but a few left.

Respectfully,
McCANN, BONTÉ & Co.

All Democrats who wish to attend the grand demonstration at Evansville to-morrow are requested to meet at the Court-house at 7 o'clock this evening to organize a Cleveland and Hendricks club, and thereby get the benefit of $1.00 rate offered to organized clubs. The train will leave here about 11 or a little later and reach Evansville by 4 o'clock. A grand time is expected. Hendricks and other distinguished speakers will deliver addresses.

James Pye has gone East to attend the GREAT HANDBOOK CLOTHERY SALE. Owing to the recent panic in this line of trade, several large manufacturing houses having failed for over one million dollars each, their goods are thrown on the market and offered at a great sacrifice. Mr. Pye having received telegrams from his friends in Cincinnati, Philadelphia and New York to come on at once, has complied. It is his purpose to purchase largely, and all his friends and customers may look out for bargains, such as were never before offered in this city.

Hopkins has had her share of horrible incidences during the year, but we have now to relate one, the heinousness of which defies description. We learn, just before going to press, that Mr. Emsley Almon, of the Morton's Gap country, was shot and killed yesterday evening by his son. The particulars we could not get in time for this issue. We have known the deceased for years, and regarded him as a perfect gentleman, and believe all who knew him esteemed him highly.

We don't know how many sons he had nor which did the odiously deed. We may hardly find for no one could be justifiable in killing his father. Sheriff Nisbet was sent for to make search for the son. We will give further particulars to-morrow.—Madisonville Daily Gleaner.

November and October.

[New York World.]
The Republicans have won success in the early voting States in Presidential years for the last twenty-four years almost without exception. The reason is that the Administration, having enormous power of patronage at its command, and an almost unlimited supply of money, has been able to concentrate on those States a strength impossible to overcome.

This year the Republicans have brought money, magnetism, murders, Federal patronage, intimidation and fraud to a focus in Vermont, Maine and Ohio, each in its turn. They have saved the States, but by reduced majorities. The weakness of Maine as compared with Garfield has been established by the insufficient results of these concentrated efforts.

In the election two weeks from now the Republicans will be compelled to scatter their forces, their money and their labor. They still find themselves compelled to fight more desperately than ever for Ohio. But if they concentrate on Ohio they lose New York. Their prospects in New York are so bad that they shrink to Maine to hasten from the West to help them. But if they use all their exertions on New York they lose Ohio.

In Cincinnati, through money and fraud, they polled 6,000 more votes than there are voters in the whole city according to the census, even if the almshouses and lunatic asylums were drawn on for ballots. Does any one suppose they can do that in November?

West Virginia teaches them that they can make no impression on the Democratic column. They must depend on Republican and debatable States. What do they find there?

Their meagre plurality in Ohio warns them that, with the St. John vote, they must work to the death to keep the State in November. Indiana is lost to them, hopelessly. They must struggle desperately to retain Illinois, Michigan and Wisconsin. Kansas and Iowa threaten to slip through their fingers. They despair of New Jersey. With New York against them they dare not hope for Connecticut.

The handwriting is on the wall. They must go!

Dr. W. M. Fuqua, late President of the Christian County Medical Society and a very successful practitioner of this city and county for many years past, has accepted the professorship of Anatomy in the Memphis Hospital Medical College, and has entered on the discharge of his duties for the session which began the 1st inst. Dr. Fuqua is a gentleman of extraordinary culture and large and varied experience in his profession, both as a physician and surgeon. A diligent student of his profession and thoroughly read in its latest discoveries and improvements, he is eminently fitted for the chair to which he has been called, with the highest endorsements. His mental endowments and abundant experience coupled with his polished manners and genial nature, will render him a favorite with young gentlemen who are studying the healing art and a pillar of strength to the university. The prospects of the College, we are glad to know, are very flattering.

In this issue appears the card of the old and reliable warehouse firm of Buckner & Woodruff, this city. These gentlemen have the largest and finest fire-proof warehouse in Southern Kentucky and they are prepared to serve the public as faithfully and satisfactorily as any house in the West. With many years of practical experience and an established reputation as dealers of the strictest integrity, they offer the public their services as commission merchants in the tobacco business. We commend them to the farmers of Christian and adjoining counties as well worthy of their confidence and patronage in every respect.

The County Court this week re-elected Mr. Wm. L. Boyd as keeper of the Poor-house of Christian county. Mr. Thompson Cavanaugh was the competing candidate. The rate of compensation for maintaining paupers was reduced from $3 to $6.50 per month. There are at present 17 paupers in the poor-house. Mr. Boyd has made a careful and attentive officer and deserved the endorsement he has received. He has charge of the farm attached to the poor-house from which he derives his revenue as there can be no profit in keeping the paupers at $6.50 per month.

Gus Williams delighted a fair audience at the Opera House Tuesday night in "One of the Finest." In his character of a New York policeman he well sustains his reputation as a comedian. The play is a good one and Mr. Williams' support was very good throughout. In his songs and recitations he won the good opinion of his audience and everybody was pleased with the entertainment.

Mrs. Mary Morris, a sister of Ex-Gov. Blackburn, died in Louisville last week. She spent a large fortune in ameliorating the sufferings of Confederate soldiers in prison at Camp Douglas and has lived a life of benevolence and philanthropy.

A terrific dog-fight between "Sport," a Louisville dog, and "Tiger," a Cincinnati dog, occurred last Monday near Louisville for $350 a side. Tiger triumphed after a fight of more than one hour. About $10,000 changed hands on the result. 100 sports went to see the fight on a steamer chartered for the occasion.

SPECIAL LOCALS.

To The Tax-Payers of Christian County.

My term as Sheriff of Christian County ends with this year. I must and will close out my business. Many of you are owing me taxes. These must be paid right away. This means everybody. Do not say, "It does not mean me, I am good for my taxes." No man is as good as his money. I have employed a number of deputies, and on the 1st Monday in November, I shall start them out with orders to levy and sell and wind up this unholy business. I shall advertise all land and town lots for sale on the 1st Monday in December. Come in and pay and save costs. I mean what I say. I must wind out. I have neither home nor money, and cannot pay around this town for long years waiting to collect little amounts of tax. I give you fair warning. From rich and poor I must have this money.

C. V. Major, Esq., of Rolla, Mo., writes, "I take pleasure in adding my testimony to that of hundreds of others, as to the efficacy of PRICKLY ASH WITHERS. I have not only sold it here and in Arkansas, but have used it myself, and as a regulator of the stomach and bowels, I do not think there is anything better. Its action on the bowels is free, without causing any griping or pain whatever."
